Commercial Property for Lease Description

Offices for Lease Auckland Central Achilles House 51
Customs Street East

Achilles House was originally built in 1903 to be used as a kauri gum trading post, with extensive refurbishments being completed in 2009. All of its original features have been meticulously restored, including polished kauri flooring and exposed timber columns, which are both perfectly complemented through the addition of a beautiful marble foyer.

Prominently positioned on the corner of Customs Street East and Commerce Street, Achilles House has access to a wide array of amenity, as well as all of Auckland's main transport hubs, including the Britomart Train Station, Bus Exchange, and Ferry Terminal.
